LIST KSIĘDZA PROBOSZCZA

Drodzy Parafianie i Przyjaciele Kościoła

Dzisiaj obchodzimy uroczyste eucharystyczną obecność Chrystusa między nami. Eucharystia jest ofiarą: jest poświęceniem ciała Chrystusa i przelaniem Jego krwi za nas wszystkich. Zostało to zapowiedziane podczas Ostatniej Wieczerzy. I przez całą historię uobecnia się to w każdej Eucharystii. W niej mamy pokarm: jest to nowy pokarm życia i mocy chrześcijanina, który podąża do Ojca. Eucharystia to także obecność Chrystusa wśród nas. Ta obecność powoduje w nas postawę adoracji i osobistego zjednoczenia z Nim. To centrum i klucz do życia Kościoła. To źródło i korzeń chrześcijańskiego istnienia. Bez eucharystycznego życia chrześcijańska wiara pozostałaby jedynie filozofią. W ustanowieniu Eucharystii Jezus pozostawia nam polecenie miłości i miłosierdzia. Nie chodzi tu o ostanią wolę przyjaciela, który udaje się w daleką podróż lub ojca, który jest bliski śmierci. Jest to potwierdzenie dzieła, które On zapoczątkowuje w nas. W Chrście rozpoczyna się nasze nowe życie, a Eucharystia je ożywia. Poczucie sensu tego życia prowadzi nas do miłości bliźniego i to daje wzrost aż do oddania życia: po tym można poznać, że jesteśmy chrześcijanami.

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners and Friends

Today we solemnly celebrate Christ's Eucharistic presence amongst us. The Eucharist is sacrifice: the sacrifice of Christ's immolated body and his blood shed for all of us.

This was already anticipated in the Last Supper. And, throughout history, it will be renewed with each Eucharist. In the Eucharist we find our nourishment: it is the new nourishment that provides the Christian with life and strength on his way towards the Father. The Eucharist means Christ's presence amongst us. The Eucharist is a mystery of faith. It is the Church's centre and key of life. It is the source and the deeper roots of the Christian existence. Without the Eucharistic presence the Christian faith would be just reduced to a philosophy. With the institution of the Eucharist Jesus gives us the commandment of love of charity. It is not either the last advice from the friend that is going far away or from the father who is getting ready for his final journey. It is the confirmation of the dynamism He provides us with. With the Baptism we start a new life that is nourished with the Eucharist. The dynamism of this life impels us to love our neighbours and it is a dynamic growth that may even induce us to sacrifice our own life: it is in this context that the world will realize we are Christians.

Jesus said,

"This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

SACRIFICE

Today the Church focuses on the Eucharist. Today's readings remind us how connected to ancient blood sacrifices we are when offering our unbloody sacrifice. The reading from Exodus describes a solemn ritual designed so the Israelites would never forget their covenant with God.

The reading from the Letter to the Hebrews turns us from those ancient animal sacrifices, the first efforts to worship the living God. Our sacrifice is the body and blood of the Son of God. Because of Christ we have a new covenant.

The Gospel from Mark retells the establishment of that covenant, the familiar story of the Last Supper. Juxtaposed with the story of animal sacrifice as it is here, we are challenged to listen with new attention, to remember the great price paid for our salvation. Jesus gave his body and every drop of his blood for us.

We hope to see you as we all strive to deepen our prayer life.

FEAST OF FAITH

The Corpus Christi Procession

In the thirteenth century, a Belgian nun by the name of Juliana had a vision: she saw the full moon silvery and radiant except for one dark spot. The meaning of the vision was revealed to her: the moon was the Church's liturgical year, the dark spot a missing feast in honor of the Blessed Sacrament. Today's feast of Corpus Christi—the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ—grew from Juliana's vision.

On this feast, many parishes observe the traditional Corpus Christi procession, giving honor to the Eucharist by carrying this greatest treasure out of the safety of our churches and into our streets. At the end of every Mass we are not just let out, we are sent forth, strengthened by the Eucharist, to be the Body of Christ in the world. The Corpus Christi procession is the dismissal writ large! We take Jesus with us, not only in our hearts, but carried in our midst and exposed in a monstrance. It is a public profession of faith and a blessing of the world. Jesus walks with us on these streets that we walk day after day, among those who know him but yearn to know him better, and among those who do not know him. The Eucharist is a mystery to be believed, to be celebrated—and to be lived.
