LIST KSIĘDZA PROBOSZCZA

Drodzy Parafianie i Przyjaciele

Dzisiaj rozważamy przypowieść o siewcy. Ma specjalną siłę i urok, ponieważ jest to słowo samego Pana Jezusa. Przesłanie jest jasne: Bóg jest hojny siejąc, ale owoce Jego siewu zależą również —i równocześnie — od naszego wolnego odbioru. Że owoc zależy od ziemi na jaką spada potwierdza nam codzienne doświadczenie. Na przykład, wśród uczniów w tej samej szkole i tej samej klasie, jedni kończą z powołaniem i inni jako ateisi. Słyszeli to samo, ale ziarno spadło na różne grunty. Dobry grunt to nasze serce. Po części jest to kwestia natury; ale przede wszystkim zależy od naszej woli. Są osoby, które wolą korzystać niż być lepszym. W nich spełnia się przypowieść: ciernie (to znaczy dotyczy troski doczesne i ułuda bogactwa) «zagłuszają słowo, tak że zostaje bezwocne» (Mt 13,22). Ale z kolei ci, którzy cenią być, przygarniają z miłością ziarno Boga i czynią owocnym. Nawet jeśli oznacza to umartwianie się. Chrystus zapowiedział: «Jeżeli ziarno pszenicy wpadłszy w ziemię nie obumrze, zostanie tylko samo, ale jeżeli obumrze, przynosi plon obfitą» (J 12,24). Pan również ostrzegł nas, że droga do zbawienia jest wąska i ciasna (por. Mt 7,14): co jest dużo warte, dużo kosztuje. Nic co wartościowe nie przychodzi bez wysiłku.

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners and Friends

Today, we consider the parable of the sower. It has a special force and charm because it is our Lord Jesus' own word. The message is quite clear: God is generous while sowing, but the very success of his sowing is also contingent —at the same time— on our free response. That the fruit depends upon the soil where the seeds fall is something that our daily experiences already tell us. For instance, amongst the pupils of the same school and the same class, some may end up with a religious calling while others may end as atheists. They heard the same messages, but the soils where the seeds fell were different. The good soil is our heart. Partly, because of our own good nature; but, mostly, because of our own will. Some people prefer to enjoy themselves rather than trying to be better. With these persons it happens the same as in the parable: the thistles (that is, the worries of this life and the love of money) «choke [the Word]; and it does not bear fruit» (Mt 13:22). But, those who, instead, treasure the being, they lovingly receive God's seeds and make them bear fruit. Although, doing it means considerable mortification. Jesus Christ said it too: «I tell you the truth, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds» (Jn 12:24). The Lord also warned us that the road to salvation is narrow and steep (cf. Mt 7:14): the more valuable it is, the more difficult to get. Priceless things cannot be obtained without effort.

Our Church is in the midst of a National Eucharistic Revival to restore an understanding of and fidelity to the great mystery of Jesus really and truly present in the Most Holy Eucharist. Every time the Church celebrates the Eucharist, she is impelled toward mission: “Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.” One way that the mission of Christ and his Church is accomplished in the world today is through the important works of the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Gifts to the Catholic Ministries Appeal assist thousands of individuals on Long Island each year. In helping young mothers receive the assistance they need through Catholic Charities, in aiding local families in receiving food, clothing, and support through parish outreach programs, in accompanying veterans, disabled, and elderly in receiving care and housing, and in supporting seminarians through their discernment and formation, your gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal helps to spread the light of Christ further than you can imagine.

Fr. Christopher Heller, who was ordained a priest last June, noted: “Every single day of my time in the seminary for five years, the Catholic Ministries Appeal had a part of my life; because without the generosity of people supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal, I would not have been in the seminary. So, I can say that the fact that I finally was ordained is all due to the work of the Catholic Ministries Appeal. I think that supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal is important because it is saying that you are on the side of the renewal that Christ is working in the Church on Long Island.” Your gifts to the Catholic Ministries Appeal are integral to the mission of the Church on Long Island.

If you have not done so already, I ask you to consider making a gift to the 2023 Catholic Ministries Appeal. For convenience’s sake, your contribution to the Catholic Ministries Appeal can now be made monthly over the course of the year. Please inquire with the Appeal Office if this is an option that you would prefer to take advantage of. If you have already contributed to the 2023 Catholic Ministries Appeal, please know how truly grateful I am. It is only through your generous support, that we are able to serve the entire People of God in the Diocese of Rockville Centre.

Sincerely in Christ,
Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre

The goal of participation in this program is to prepare oneself, as practicing Catholics, to receive the sacraments. Being Catholic is a lifelong endeavor and involves much more than receiving a select number of sacraments.

It is a process that continues through one's life and ideally should reflect in one's daily life.
Please come and join us.

We look for Volunteer Religious Catechists or Assistant Catechists in our church. Please call for more info to Director of Religious Education
